 - Only costs that are allowable and necessary for the effective and efficient operations of the recharge center should be included in recharge center rates.
 - Costs included in the recharge center rates must exclude those funded by federal sources.
 - Billing rates must be designed to recover no more than the allowable cost of goods and services provided.
 - Rates must be documented and established according to standards detailed in the Rate Development Guidelines for Recharge Centers (<https://financialservices.wvu.edu/cost-compliance/recharge-centers>).
 - Recharge center rates cannot discriminate between federal and nonfederal funded activities of the University.
 - Amounts billed to users must be based on their actual usage of the goods and/or services that is measurable and based on benefits received.
 - Rates must be evaluated and adjusted at least biennially, taking into consideration any prior period over/under recoveries, by the department providing the good or service.
